By Viktoria Ljungman

Viktoria Ljungman was born with a rare birth defect that left her without a left leg. Despite this, she always dreamed of becoming a doctor. After graduating from medical school, she faced many challenges as an amputee doctor. However, she persevered and eventually became a successful surgeon.

In her book, An Unlikely Doctor, Ljungman shares her inspiring story of overcoming adversity to achieve her dreams. She writes about the challenges she faced as an amputee doctor, the discrimination she experienced, and the support she received from her family and friends.

Ljungman's story is a testament to the power of perseverance and the importance of following your dreams. It is an inspiring read for anyone who has ever faced adversity or who is looking for a story of hope and triumph.
