them, but Princess remained a beacon of hope, her instincts guiding their path to safety.

A Journey from Fear to Resilience

As the earth began to tremble violently, Princess's instincts kicked in. She instinctively knew that danger was imminent and sought refuge beneath a sturdy wooden table. Her human parents, Lillian and Paul Wyman, huddled close by, desperate for safety.

The quake's relentless force sent the table crashing through the floor, plunging the family into darkness. Amidst the chaos, Princess remained a reassuring presence, her calm demeanor providing a sense of comfort. She refused to leave her family's side, even as the walls around them crumbled.

Guided by Princess's acute hearing, the Wyrmans made their way through the wreckage, each step filled with uncertainty and fear. The once-familiar path to safety was now a labyrinth of debris and twisted metal. Darkness enveloped them like a suffocating blanket, but Princess's tail wagged relentlessly, guiding them out of the nightmare.

As the family stumbled through the rubble, they realized the unimaginable extent of the devastation. The once-vibrant lodge they had called home was now a scene of ruin.
